

Jordan Crane

Jordan is a dynamic lead guitarist and vocalist whose roots in music run deep. Coming from a family rich in musical tradition, Jordan began his journey at just six years old, quickly developing a passion that would shape his life and career.

He honed his skills performing in the bar scene at Lake of the Ozarks, Missouri, where he built a reputation for his electrifying guitar work and engaging stage presence. From there, his career expanded to theaters and festivals across the United States, bringing his high-energy performances to audiences nationwide. Throughout his journey, Jordan has performed with numerous musical groups while also launching his own projects, writing and recording original music that reflects his diverse influences. He has shared stages with many well-known artists across a variety of genres, further showcasing his versatility and talent.

Driven by an unrelenting passion for live performance, Jordan thrives on connecting with the crowd. His commitment to delivering an unforgettable show fuels him every time he steps on stage, making him a standout performer wherever he plays.