JOURNEY, HEART, & BON JOVI to life.

Steve Brady

At 17, Steven began playing in his father's country band, gaining valuable experience as a working musician. After returning to California in 1983, he joined an original rock band that performed together for six years and opened for legendary acts including Blue Öyster Cult, Foghat, and Wishbone Ash.

Steven has played in cover and original rock bands since 1984. Today, he continues his lifelong passion behind the drums with Journey to Jersey, celebrating the music that has inspired him throughout his career.
